A Perfyte Pronostycacion perpetuall.

Very ealy to be vnderſtande, of the Reader. yea, and alſo for them whiche knoweth not a letter on the Booke. And it is good for Huſbandemen of the Countrey, to knowe and Vnderſtande the yeares, that ſhall be plentyoue and in great habundaunce of Goodes.

And the yeres the whiche ſhall be greuous, and in ſcaſytie with other ſygnes conteyned herein, as appereth in this Booke.

7.H.He

H.as Ephemerides

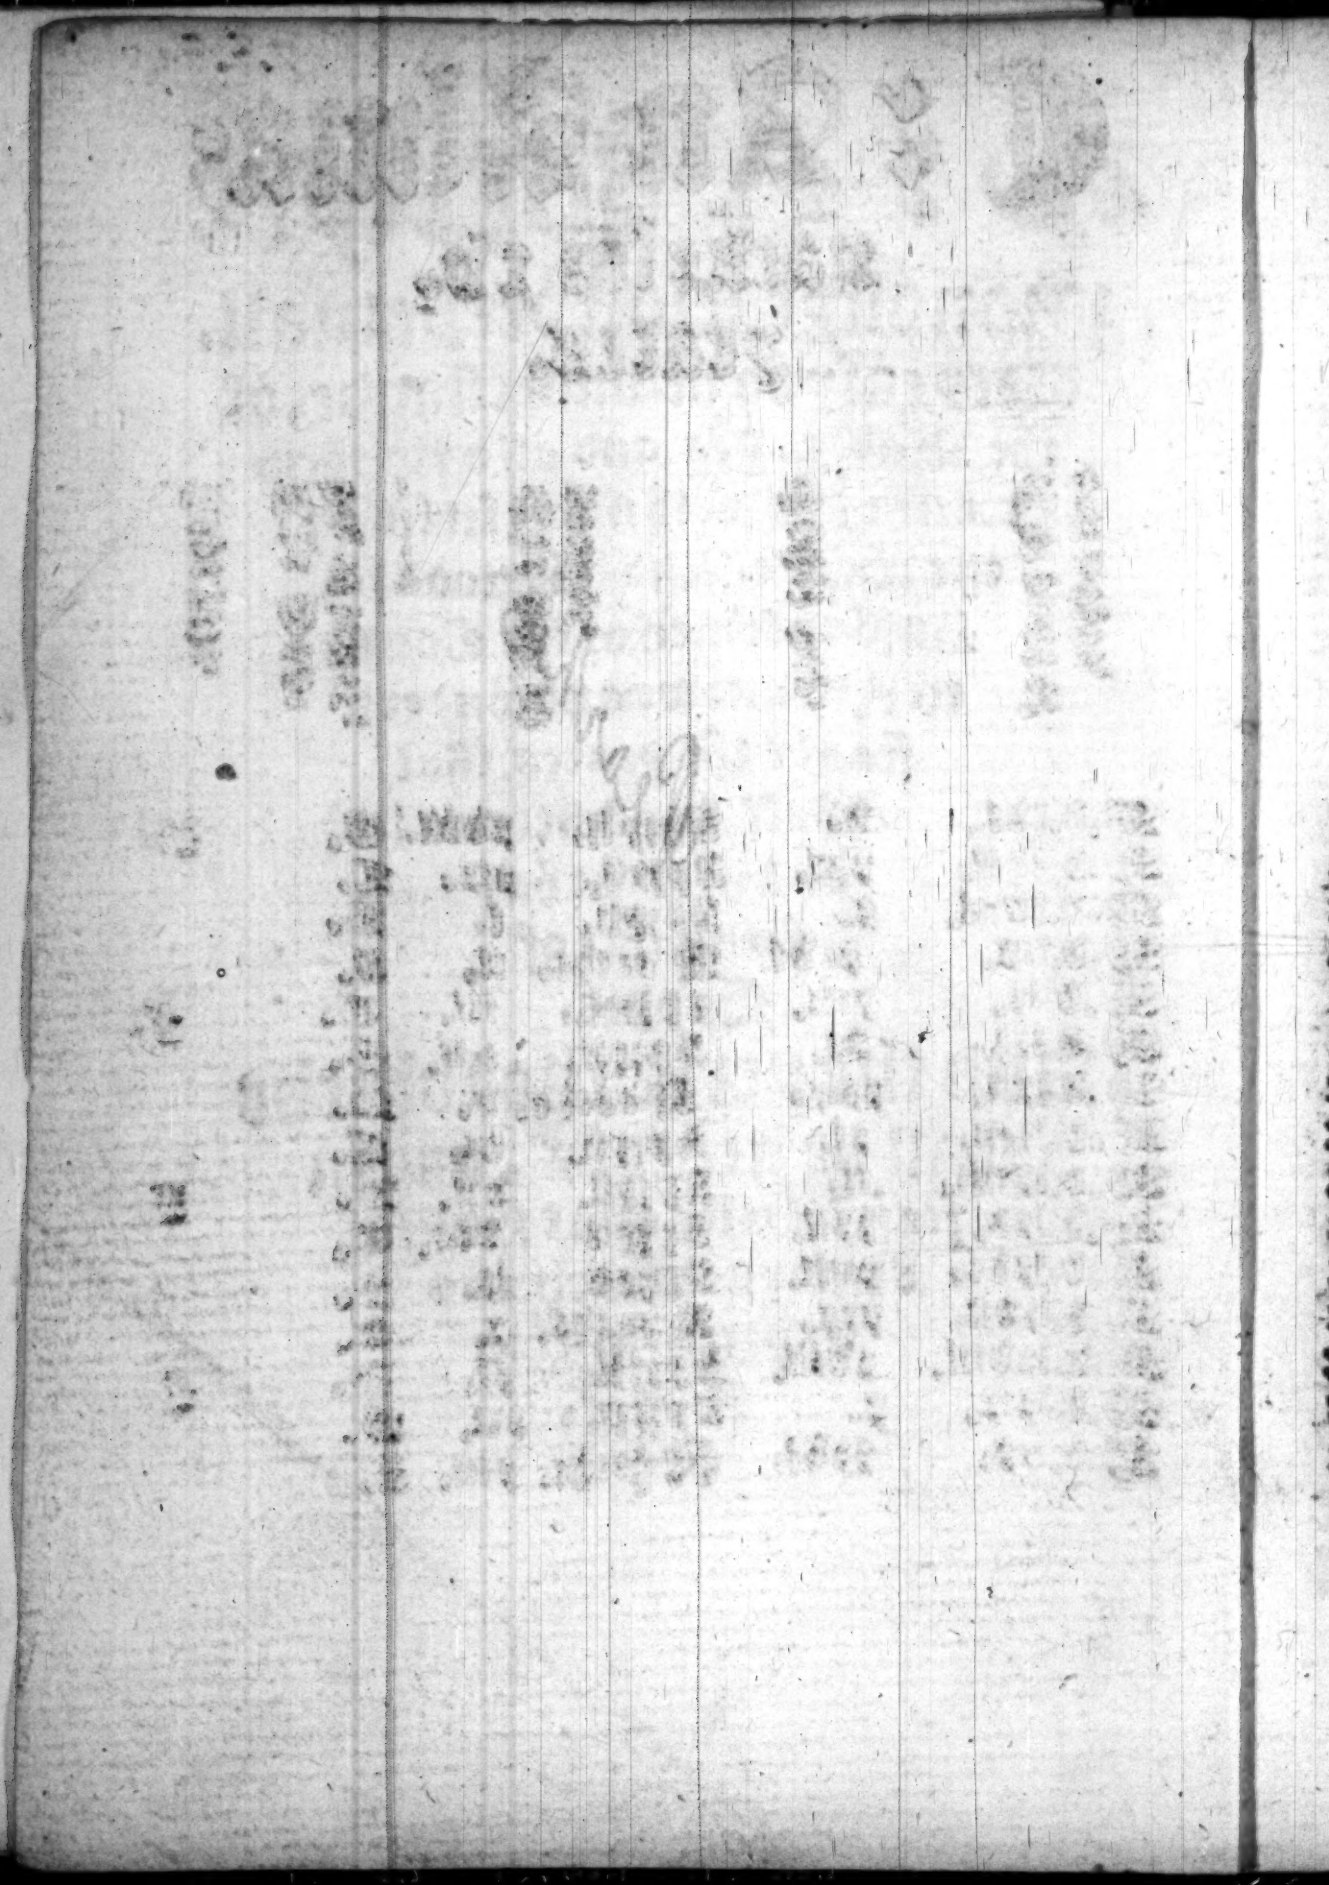
K



An Almanacke for .xv. yeares.

M.d.lvi.	v.	Aprill.	xviii.	G.	D.
M.d.lvii.	xvi.	Aprill,	xix.	L.
M.d.lviii.	x.	Aprill.	i.	B.
M.d.lix.	xxvi.	March.	ii.	A.
M.d.lx.	xiii.	Aprill.	iii.	G.	C.
M.d.lxi.	ii.	Aprill.	iiii.	E.
M.d.lxii.	xxix.	March.	v.	D.
M.d.lxiii.	xi.	Aprill.	vi.	C.
M.d.lxiiii.	ii.	Aprill.	vii.	B.	F.
M.d.lxv.	xxii.	Aprill	viii.	G.
M.d.lxvi.	xiii.	Aprill	ix.	F.
M.d.lxvii.	xxx.	March.	x.	E.
M.d.lxviii.	xviii.	Aprill.	xi.	D.	C.
M.d.lxix.	x.	Aprill.	xii.	B.
M.d.lxx.	xxvi.	March.	xiii.	A.

¶ A Preface to the Reader, that he maye the moze eakely vnderstande the hoole effect of this Pronostycacion.

¶ Compyled by

I. A.

Gentyll Reder, ye shall vnderstande that I haue take a lytell payne i this Pronostycacion, to this entent that I alwell wolde haue the Ignozaunt people, that is not skylled on the Booke, for to perceyue and haue some vnderstandynge howe the yeare doth go aboute, alwell as the learned men, to the entent that they shall perceyue the yeares, the whyche shal shall be plenteous, and in great habundaunce of goodes.

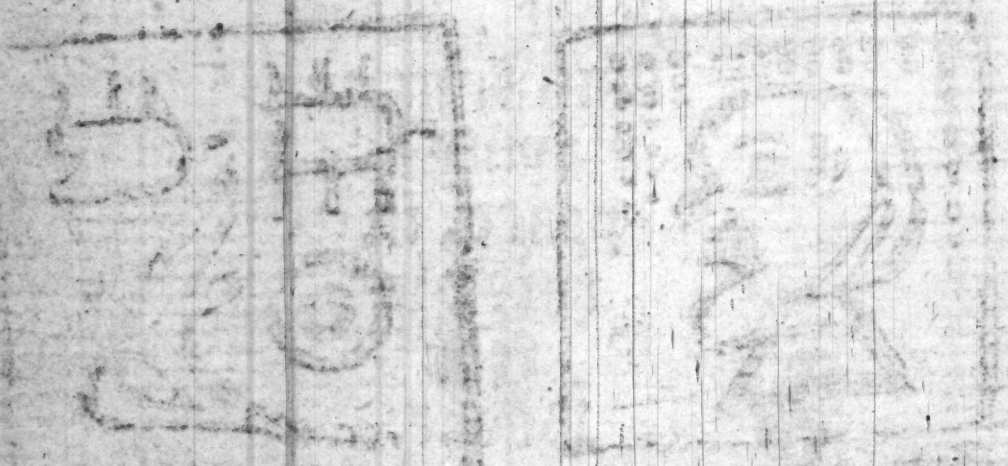
¶ And agayne also for to perceyue the yeares the whiche are greuous, and in scalite of al maner corne. And of the deth of men women, and Chyldren, of Tempestes of wyndes, of dyuers deseases, reygnynge amongest Cattell, of the feelde. And also of the scarsenes of Corne, of grasse, of fruyte, of wynes, and of warres, with dyuers other perylous Sygnes, the which shall fall in the yeare. As ye shall se more playnly appeare, in this present Booke.



THE PRO=
nostycacion per= petuall.

When Newe yeares daye, falleth on thee Soudaye, there doth belonge aleuen Syg=nes, as hereafter folo weth. That is to saye.

Wynter tempe=rate, enclyned to heat.

Sommer com=mune.

Feuyte metely.

Yarnest Indyffe=ferente.

Wayne moyste-rent and good.

Honycomenly.

Cattell sycke in the body.

Yonge men shall dye and youth.

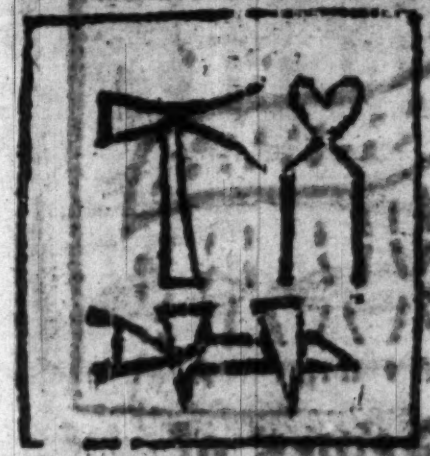
Great Robbory.



Newes of Kyngs.

Many Malmary.

¶ Thus endeth these xi. sygnes, that reygneth thys yere.

WHEN Newe yeares daye falleth on the Monday. There doth belonge a. xi. sygnes to hym, as here followeth. That is to saye.

Wynter blacke.

Sommerwete.

Fruyte deere and scante.

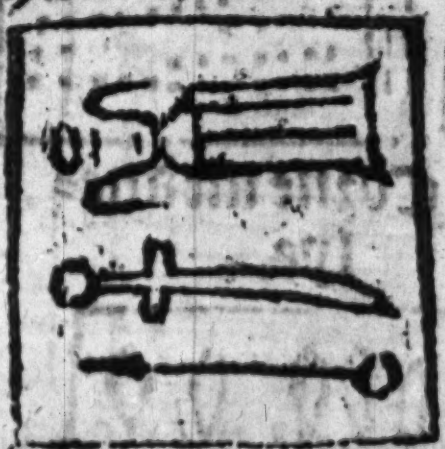
Newes of Cantuarie.

Ares cyrkenes.

Kynges shall dye.

Many maryages.

Knyghtes shall haue a fall.



Truse is taken.

Bees shall lyghe.

Many shall dye.

¶ Thus endeth these .xi. Synnes. That reygneth that yere.

When Neweyeres daye falleth on the Tuesday. There doth belonge a.xi. Sygnes. As here after followeth, that is to saye.

Wynter wyndye.

Somer rayny.

A dyuers haruest.

Cozne meanelye.

Feurte indyfferente.

Sycknes of wōmen.

Yonge Chyldren
shalbye & women

Hony meanelye.

Bestes shall dye of hungre, and sores.

Syppes and Galleys shall perysshe.

And Hulkes.

¶ Thus endeth the .xi. lygnes. That reygneth that yere.

When Neweeyres daye falleth on the wednesdaye. There doth belonge a.xi. lygnes to lowynge That is to saye.

Wynter temperate and warme.

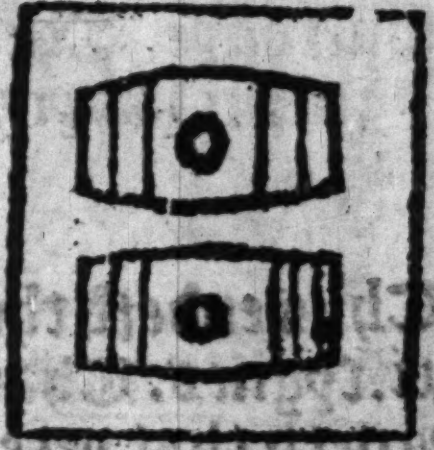
Frute in dyuerse and in some places scant.

Sōmer good.

Harueste good conuenient and haye inought.

Wyne plentye.

Sony in dyfferent.



women with chyl de shal haue payne

Chyldren in Jeo= berdie of death.

Ne'ves of kynges.

End of death.

Sheepe shall prospere.

¶ Thus endeth the
xi. xi. kynges. That reygneth that yere.

When Newe yeres daye falleth on the Thursday, there doth belonge .xi. kynges folowynge. &
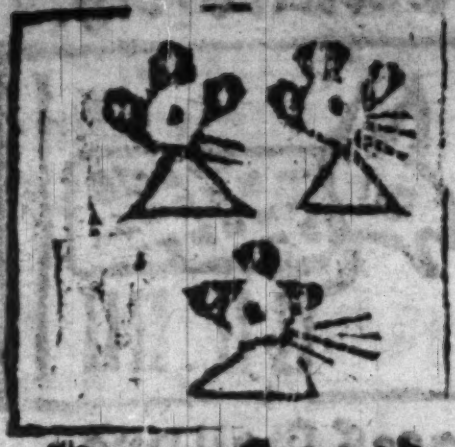
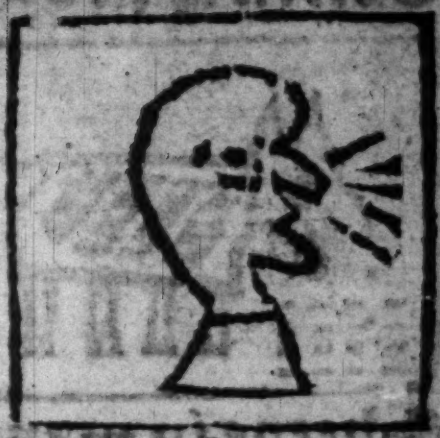
That is to saye.

Wynter wyndye.



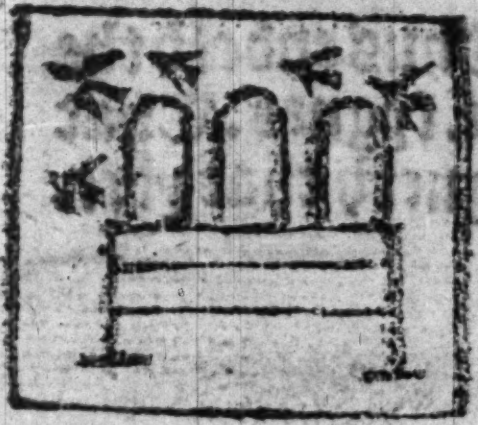
Sõmre wyndye.



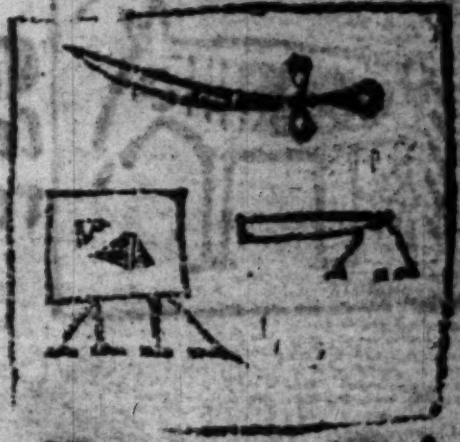
Haruest good.

Woche Fruite.

Honye plentye.



Flesche deare.



Catell shall dye.

Extell dyeth.

Sheepe in many places shall dye.

Lambes shall dye.

¶ Thus endeth the .xi. lygnes. That reygneth that yere.

When Neweyeres daye falleth on the frydaye. & There both belonge a. xi. sygnes folowynge
That is to saye.

Wynter wyndye.

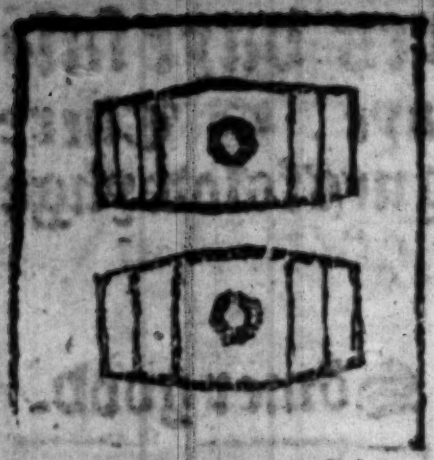
Somer good.

Harueſt ſo ſo.

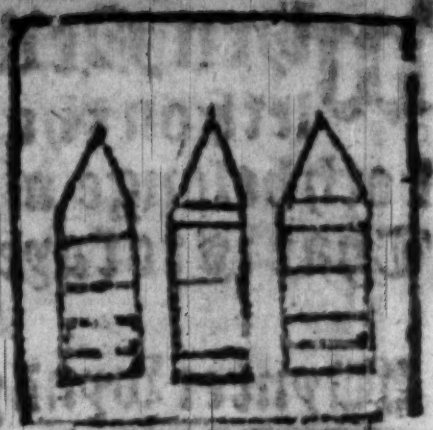
Lytell fruyte.

Lytell wyne.

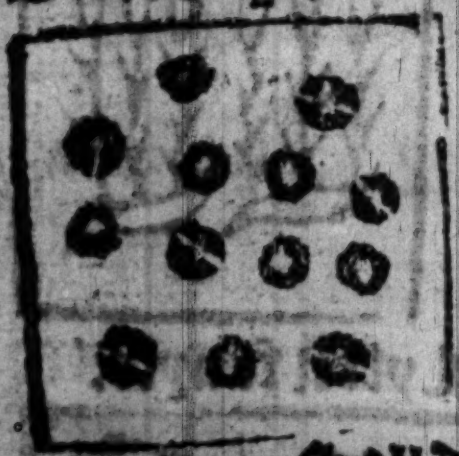
Lytell hony.



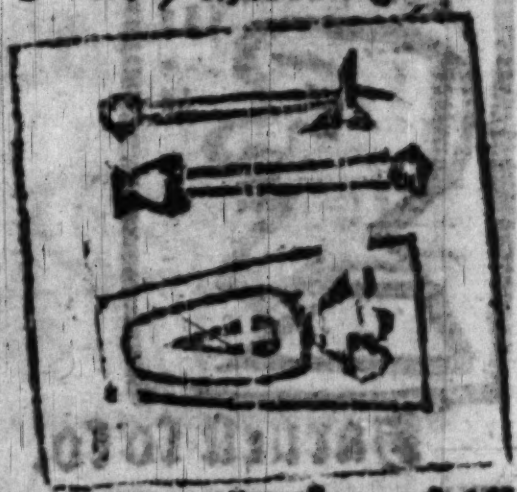
Bleredeyes.



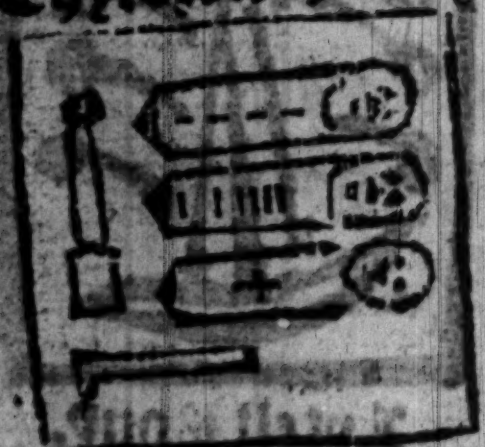
youth chalbye.

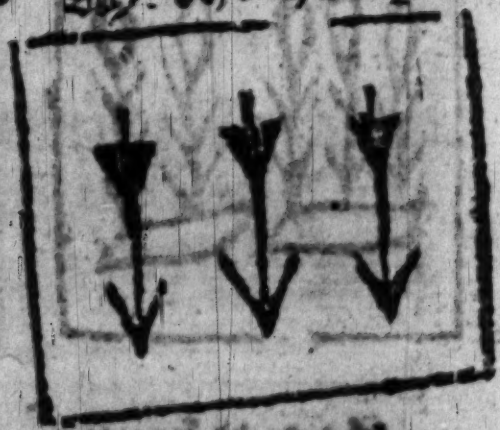


Chyldren chalbye.

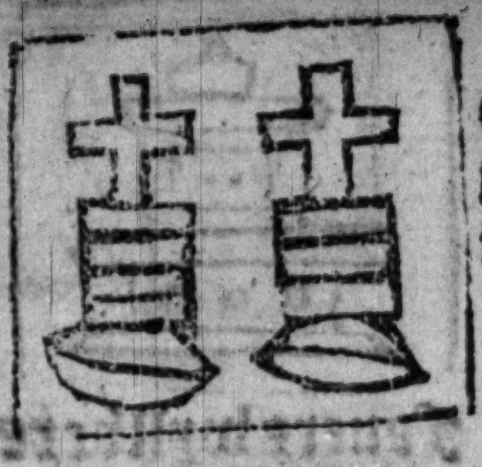


Woche henger.





Indyuersplaces earthquakes.



¶ Thus endeth the .xi. sygnes. That teygneth that yere.

When Newe yeres daye falleth on the Saturday. ¶ There dothbelonge a. xi. sygnes folowynge, That is to saye.

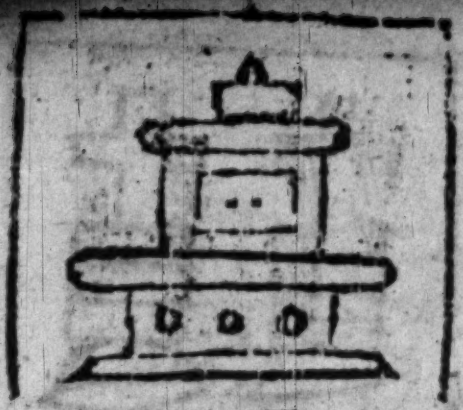
Wynter meane.

Harueste backewardes.

Sõmer hote.

In many places frye.

Lytell hony.



Feuers wyll brẽne them.

Aged men and wo men shall dye.

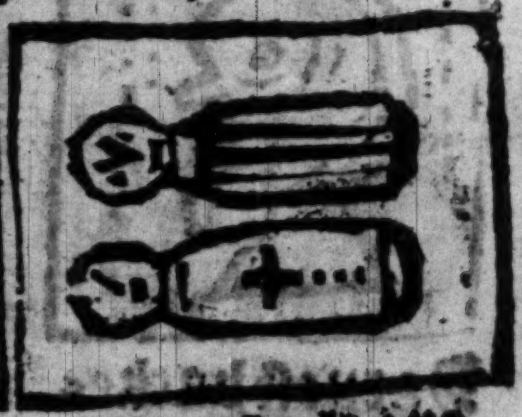
Woche flaxe.



Woche haye.

Woche Hempe.

¶Thus endeth all the Sygnes of this Pronostycacion. Cõpyled and made for euer.

¶ F I N I S.

IMPRYNted by me Robert Wyer: dwellynge at the Sygne of S. Johñ Euangelyste beside Chatynge Crosse.

¶ Cõ impzimendum Solum.

ROBERT ✠ WYER